Selected Poetry.

DIE STÆDTEL BUMP.

BY I. K. L.

["Die Stædtel Bump," ("The Town Pump,") appeared in the July number of the "Guardian," edited by Rev. H. Harbaugh, to whom the authorship of the piece is attributed. Rev. Harbaugh has immortalized the Pennsylvania patois, in this and similar poetical efforts. "'S Alt Schul Haus An Der Krick," published some five years ago, is one of the most popular of these, but we think "Die Stædtel Bump" is better. But let the reader judge for himself.—Bedford Gazette.]

In alta Zeita, wes ich gut,
War's net wie now in alles;
Gewachselt hot sich's, Schuh un Hut,
Zu was es heut der Fall is.

Zwe Meil hen mer ins Schulhaus g'hat:
Es war im alta Stædtel.
Un dert hie sin mer alle Tag,
Dorch Staub un Dreck geweddelt.

Net alle Tag,—ich war schier letz
Juscht funf Schultag aus sexa.
Uf Samstags hen mer g'schaft daheme,
De Siveta: Gottes Gesetza.

Der Alte Couch—er schloft in Ruh—
Hot als die Schul dert g'halta,
Un oft an Madel un an Buh
Sei Whippa lossa walta.

Un doch war's pleasant dert zu sei
Im Summer un im Winter,
In Schnee un Dreck ins Schulhaus nei,
Sin ganga arg viel Kinner.

E hunnert yard vom Schulhaus war
E plaz mir frisch im Sinn.
Net's "Schpook-haus" war's—sel men ich net—
But was dert steht vor sellem "Inn"—
Die Stædtel Bump.

Die Stædtel Bump! 's war's B—ler's Bump,
Vor B—ler's Werthshaus g'stanna—
Hot Wasser g'hat for Mann un Lump,
Der weit o'r nachst is g'komma—
Die Stædtel Bump.

Dert hie sin mer als ganga gern
For Wasser for de Schuler;
Un in der Hoiet oder Ern
War sel for uns en Kuhler—
Die Stædtel Bump.

Das Wasser hola war en Ehr
Die viel hen "couldn't come it";
Un die Zwe wara happy boys,
Die b'sucha derfte ohne noise
Die Stædtel Bump.

Am Turnpike 'naus e hunnert yard
War Wamsem schoe un gru;
Uf dem zu Walka war's dewerth
Der Master froga so: May we
Zur Stædtel Bump?

"Master"—un do war der ketch—
"The water's warm, or nearly all,
May Bill and I some water fetch?"
"You may."—Noh sin mer wie en Knall
Zur Stædtel Bump.

Zur There draus—der Emer mit—
Geht's langsam g'nung voran.
Uns is net Ernst—mit langs'ma Schritt
Kommt mer doch glei schon wieder von
Der Stædtel Bump.

So in der Hurry sin mer net,
Good Pye, Bill, books and Single Rule;
Do sin die locher—marbles do,
Un aus dem Sinn, Couch, looks un Schul
Un Stædtel Bump.

Des Game vorbei, mit Emer now
Geht's grad am Kerchhof naus.
Do schlofa arg viel Menscha gut,
Die au hen oft getrunka aus
Der Stædtel Bump.

Die Stædtel Bump! Do sin mer now,
Vor'm Werthshaus schoe un gros
Der Bumpahandel in he hand
Un bumpa schmart druf los
Die Stædtel Bump.

An der Bump hot mer kenna als—
Kann noch—sel dorst gut loescha.
B'sides mancher Gin un Whiskyhals
War do vom Wasser g'waescha
Der Stædtel Bump.

Was rothe g'sichter sin als do
Vom Werthshaus raus geloffa;
Sie hen dert drin am Bar ge'ttend
Un wara als schier g'soffa—
Von Stædtel Bump?

Ne! Ne! Das Feier-Wasser war's
In grosse Schmaller getrunka.
'S hot character, respect un geld
Gar dreislich stark vesunka,
Troz Stædtel Bump.

Do sin au Leut von aller Art
Alle Tag par mol her komma;
Un hen der Emer un der Krug
Voll firstrate Wasser g'nomma
Aus Stædtel Bump.

Do hot mir au als Gaul getraenkt,
Un Kuh un Sau bei truppa.
Do hot der Hostler als gedenkt;
E Fip ich grick: "Der Gaul getrunkt"
An Stædtel Bump.

Uf Sonntags sin viel Leut doher
Von Land un Staedtel komma;
Un vor un noch der Kerch e Drink
Aus dera Bump genomma—
Aus Stædtel Bump.

De Nova hen als for die Maed
Gebumpt polite un schmart,
De Maed de hen's versucht, an dann
Wegg'schit; doch war's dawerth—
Gell Stædtel Bump.

Noh hen sie als, gnitz, looks exchanged,
Un sachte g'samma g'schwaetzt.
Die hand gedruckt; 's war so arranged,
Bis Samstag Ovit ward net g'schwaetzt
Bei Stædtel Bump.

E Johr o'r zwe—die "Match" gemacht;
E Hochsich geht em Parra zu,
Der Bump vorbei; der Braut'gam lacht:
"Do sin mer g'meet, wescht's, ich un du?"
Bei Stædtel Bump,

Bump, Bump, Bump! Der Emer's voll,
Now, Bill; now let uns go,
Der Couch von books un Single Rule
Guckt now vellleicht von seller Schul
Zur Stædtel Bump.

Bei Grabhof, Waasem, Spielplaz hie,
Geht's now ins Schulhaus nei;
Un wie e dorstig Hinkelie
Springt manches Kind herbei,
Dank Stædtel Bump.

* * * * *

'S is zwanzig Johr seit seller Zeit!
Der Brunne is noch do.
Die alte Bump's schier gar verfalt,
Un so im Grab viel Bumper, noh
Der Stædtel Bump.

Good by, O Stædtel Bump, Good by!
Good by, ihr Jung un Alta;
Bei euch un Gott kann einst der sei,
Der do Gott gern lost walta,
Un Stædtel Bump.

Agricultural & Domestic.

FROST HELPS THE FARMER.

In this climate winter rarely sets in until from frequent and heavy rains the ground is pretty thoroughly saturated with water. It would be a misfortune to the agriculturist to have the soil freeze solid and permanently for the season on the heels of a drouth. Wells and springs would fail in the winter time, and the action of frost could not prove so beneficial to the land as if larger quantities of water were present in it. Few take note of the actual effect of freezing and thawing upon all kinds of soil, more especially on the heavy and therefore retentive ones. These most need the action of the frost, and nature has provided for them to receive it to a greater extent than naturally light, porous soils. The water is dispersed all through the pores of the soil, and by its expansion when frozen, cracks, pulverizes, and lifts apart the particles from each other, to a more minute degree than it is possible to accomplish by any machinery. While this action is favorable to the extension of the roots of plants, it doubtless sets free much plant food which is physically so combined as before to be unavailable as fertilizers. So the looser the soil is left before winter, the better will be the action of frost upon it. On heavy lands, spaded gardens and plowed fields late in autumn, are signs of good husbandry.—Rural New Yorker.

FASTEST TIME OF HORSES.

The following record, said to be correct, is worth preserving. Doubtless the "fastest time" will be beaten before long. Our horses are so greatly improved in blood, endurance and training, that we shall not stop here.

The fastest time on record: 1 mile, pacing, Pocahontas, 2.18¾; 1 mile, trotting, Dexter, 2.18½; 2 miles, trotting, Flora Temple, 4.50½; 3 miles, trotting, Dutchman, 7.32½; 16 miles, trotting, Prince, 50.00¾; 20 miles, trotting, Capt. McGowan, 59.35½; 100 miles, trotting, Conqueror, 9.55.53; 100 miles, double, Master Burke and Robin, 10.17.22; 1 mile, running, Gladiator, 1.39½; 4 miles, running, Lexington, 7.19¾

SELECTING WALL PAPER & CARPETS.

The Hall is generally a mere passageway to something better beyond, and therefore it should not be so embellished as to attract special notice. Paper with figures of light pillars or pilasters, looks well, as does that which is marked off in courses representing marble or stone, or grained to represent oak or other woods. The Parlor is for a different purpose, and should receive a different treatment. It is the flower of the house, the place of superior dress, courtly manners, the expression of the finer sentiments, and its adornments should be delicate and etherial. The covering of the walls should not be obtrusive and glaring in color and forms. An over-dressed wall looks as unseemly as an over-dressed man or woman. A parlor wall should be a pleasant surface and back-ground for objects, and not be a conspicuous object in itself. It should seem airy and light, shutting us in loosely, giving a sense of freedom and breathing space Moreover, this wall is designed partly for the support of paintings and engravings, and these appear to much disadvantage on a surface broken up with scrolls, bosses and huge bouquets. The Living-Room should have a cheerful toned paper, less delicate than the parlor, but by no means gaudy and glaring. The Dining-Room should be plain but rich. The Bed-Rooms, of course, must be neat and simple, the prevailing colors by no means dark. The Library should be of some sober, neutral tint, yet warm and cheery.

The Carpeting of these several rooms should correspond in style with the papering. A few years ago, the designers of carpet figures ran mad with huge designs, and glaring, ill-assorted colors. In crossing a floor, one had to tramp over scrolls, cornucopias, and bouquets, several feet long. But latterly, a change has come for the better. Even now, there are vivid colors and monstrous figures enough, but we advise our friends to pass these by, and leave them to the upholsterers when hired to embellish flash hotel parlors and steamboat saloons. Our homes must be embellished with something more subdued and chaste, and therefore permanently pleasing.—Amer. Agriculturist.

Choice Miscellany.

Work and Play.—A man who is very rich now was very poor when he was a boy. When asked how he got his riches, he replied—"My father taught me never to spend money till I had earned it. If I had but a half an hour's work to do in a day, I must do that the first thing, and in a half an hour. And after this I was allowed to play, and I could then play with much more pleasure than if I had the thought of an unfinished task before my mind. I early formed the habit of doing everything in its time, and it soon became perfectly easy to do so. It is to this habit I owe my prosperity."

☞A preacher should not make the burthen of his discourse too burthensome.

PHILLIPS' FIRST BABY.

Mrs. Phillips was on the very pinnacle of felicity. She was the mother of a boy which weighed eleven pounds.

Mr. Phillips bid fair to lose his mind entirely. He danced and sung, and fired guns from the top of the corn house, whistled Yankee Doodle while eating his breakfast, and rung the necks of all the fowls on the place, to make a chicken pie for the celebration.

This worthy couple had been married ten years, and this was their first child. People had laughed at them ten years on account of this luck; people who were overrun with children, and whose lives were made miserable by the scoldings and spankings they found it necessary to inflict upon their wretched little olive plants.

Now, Mrs. Phillips said she guessed they'd laugh out of the other side. There had never been so large a baby born in Smithfield before. Mrs. Jones' only weighed nine pounds, and had a pug nose. Mrs. Sawyer's was red haired, and had a mole on its right foot—a sure sign that it would come to a bad end—and it only weighed seven pounds and fourteen ounces! She guessed folks had better look at home before they laughed.

Baby proved to be a Tartar. He had a temper like a windmill, and seemed determined to develop his feet and lungs to his utmost while he had leisure; for he screamed and kicked twenty-three out of the twenty-four hours.

But his mother declared he was an angel. We never could imagine an angel with puffy red cheeks, heels elevated in the air, sucking a sugar teat, and being bounced about in a willow cradle to the tune of "High diddle dee"—but then our imagination is not by any means so vivid as it might be.

From the hour in which the baby was born, he was the Autocrat of the household; everything had to bow to his nod.

The scullery door creaked; it was taken off the hinges, and the servant was in the draft all the time, because she might disturb the baby. For the same reason the coffee mill was moved into the woodshed, the dishes must be washed out of doors—the clatter of the plates made baby scream; the washing was done in the barn; all the clocks in the house were stopped; the dog was muzzled, and the cat choked—all from fear of disturbing the baby.

Mr. Phillips paid a blacksmith who was located within a quarter of a mile, one hundred dollars to move his shop; and Biddy was moved to the cock loft of the woodshed on account of snoring.

The child's disease was legion. It was a wonder that it could draw its breath with so many terrible ailments clinging to it. Mrs. Phillips was continually on the watch for some new demonstration.

"Charles!" cried she, waking her husband from slumber, one cold winter night, "it seems to me the baby don't breathe just right."

Mr Phillips sprang up and listened. "Good gracious, he's got the snuffles, aint he?"

"Oh, dear; what shall we do if baby is going to be sick."

Mr. Phillips got a light, and the anxious parents brought it to bear on the face of their child.

"Oh, heavens!" cried his mother, "his face is actually purple! he's going to have the scarlet fever. See that red spot on his elbow."

"It may be where he's laid on it!" remarked Mr. P.

"Laid on it? oh, you unfeeling man! you unnatural father! And there it's sucking its thumb; I've known from the first it wouldn't live; it sucked its thumb so much!"

"Seems to me that I've heard my mother say that it was a sign of a healthy child to suck its thumb, but I won't be certain. Any way it is a good sign or a bad one, I forget which."

"Run, Charles, run for the doctor! it's a going to die—I know it is! Oh, don't stop to dress—don't! it may die while you're waiting. Call for Granny Bates, and tell her to bring some catnip, and saffron, and peppermint—tell her to bring all the herbs she's got! and do hurry, Charles, do! Mercy on us! it's sucking both thumbs! Run—run!"

Mr. Phillips caught up the first article of clothing he could lay his hands on, which proved to be his wife's embroidered petticoat, but he was in too much haste, and altogether too much excited to notice dress particularly. He flung the garment over his head, and tied it around his waist—slipped on his shoes and plunged into the keen air. The doctor was asleep and did not care about turning out, but on being told that it was a case of life or death, he yielding at once.

Mr. Phillips left him dressing, and sped to the residence of Granny Bates. The old lady was wise, but she was dreadfully superstitious, and believed religiously in warnings and apparitions. Phillips gave a thundering rap at her door, and directly a night capped head appeared at an upper window.

"What do you want at this time o'night and who be ye?" said a cracked voice.

Phillips stepped out and stood plainly revealed by the light of a dim moon.

"Good gracious, mussy!" cried the old woman, "it's an apparatus from the tother world? And it's got a scolloped petticoat on. Land! I didn't think they wasted their time on such vanities as that are!"

"It's a dying!" exclaimed Phillips—"come down quick."

"Not I! I ain't so green as to trust my old body with a supernatural ghost!" and down went the window with a bang. Phillips pounded at the door until he was tired, and then made tracks for home.

Dr. Gary had just arrived. Mrs. Phillips was preparing to go into hysterics as soon as she heard his opinion.

Baby was much worse; it not only sucked its thumbs, but wiggled its toes. It could not continue long. The doctor, with a grave face, entered the sick room. Biddy rubbed her mistress with camphor. Mr. Phillips stood by, wiping his eyes with the drapery of his scant attire.

"Oh, doctor, doctor! will it die? Only save it, doctor, and you may take all I have!" cried Mrs. Phillips, wringing her hands. "I'll get down on my knees to you and thank you forever."

"Keep your sitting, marm, keep your sitting," said the doctor, taking a large pinch of snuff.

"Don't keep me in suspense! only look at its precious little arm? What is it? For the love of heaven, tell me—let me know the worst!"

"Well, marm, if I speak out, you promise not to blame me?" asked the doctor gravely.

"No, no!"

"Marm," said he, with his long face still more fearfully elongated, "it is my opinion as a man, and a physician, that the child has been bitten by four bedbugs, or else he has been bitten in four places by one insect of that description."

"Dr. Gray," cried the father, "do you mean to insult us?"

"By no means, sir, I repeat it"—

"No you don't!" yelled Mrs. P. "It's enough to insinuate that I have bed-bugs—to say nothing of your libel on that little angel cherub. Get out of this house this instant, you mean, cheating, insulting old vagabond!" and seizing the butter-ladle from the table, where Biddy had placed it full of hot pepper tea, she flew at him. The doctor knew enough about women to realize that in flight lay safety, and with a hasty bow he backed off the step and started for his gig. The ground was inclining, and quite icy. His heels flew up, his head went down, and his whole body spun down the hill, like a shellshod cutter. Mrs. P., nothing daunted, rushed after him, and shared the same fate. The two brought up together at the foot of the hill, in a watering trough, but no words of sympathy were exchanged. The doctor got up as quick as he could, and galloped home, and Mrs. Phillips followed his example.

The baby lived and throve. As it grew older its dictatorship became more and more absolute. Phillips was down on all fours for the greater part of his time, that the baby might ride on his back; and Mrs. Phillips went without crinoline, and left her arms bare in the coldest weather because the steel springs and her dress sleeves hurt baby.

Baby made a complete wreck of all the crockery in the house—pounded it with a hammer; he kicked his heels through the looking glasses, and tore the inwards out of his pa's gold watch; unmolested. It pleased the dreary, weary, scary baby, his mother said—the little mitty sugar plummy baby.

One day when the wonderful baby was a year old, the village inhabitants were startled by the disheveled apparition of Mrs. Phillips—bare-headed, and wearing a wild expression of countenance—hurrying at a frantic rate to the joiner's shop, where her husband worked. And instantly re-appeared, followed by Phillips at a dog trot.

Old Squire Smith saw them, and being a man who lived in constant dread of fire, he thought it must be that the residence of Mr. Phillips was in flames. The old gentleman was perfectly insane on the subject of conflagration, and at the top of his lungs raised the cry:

"Fire! fire! fire!"

"Where? Where?" cried a score of voices.

"Charles Phillips' house!" said the old gentleman.

The fire company gathered, got out their engine, and ran with all speed to the fated house. But to their supreme astonishment they did not so much as smell a puff of smoke in the region.

The head fireman, who was something of a wag, knocked at the door. Mrs. Phillips appeared, absolutely radiant.

"Is this the house, allow me to enquire, ma'am, that we are expected to squirt on?" said the fireman.

"I do not understand you," said Mrs. P., "but the baby has walked two steps—two steps on his own feet alone!"

"Sold! by Jupiter!" cried the fireman; "and now, boys, here's three times three to the baby that's stepped two steps! Hearty, my men!"

And they gave the cheers—drank a barrel of cider, which Mr. Phillips rolled out, and returned home.

ARTEMUS WARD'S THRESHING MACHINE.

My wife's a exceedingly practycal woman. I luv her muchly, however, and humor her little ways. Its a reckliss falsehood that she henpecks me, and the young man in our neighborhood who said to me as I was distendin my diafram with a gentle cocktail at the village tavern—who said to me in these very langwidge, "Go home, old man, onless you want another tea-pot throwd at you by B. J.," probly regrets havin said so. I said "Betsy Jane is my wife's front name, gentle youth, and I permits no person to allood to her as B. J., outside of the family circle, of which I am it principally myself. Your other observations I scorn and disgust, and I must polish you off." He was a able-bodied young man, and, removin his coat, he inquired if I wanted to be ground to powder? I said yes, if there was a powder grindist handy, nothin would ford me greater pleasure, when he struck me a painful blow into my right eye, causin me to make a rapid retreat into the fire-place.

I hadn't any idea that the enemy was so well organized. But I rallied and went for him in a rather vigris style for my time of life. His parents lived near by, and I will simply state that fifteen minutes had only elapsed after the first hit, when he was carried home on a shutter. His mamma met the sollum procession at the door, and after keerfully looking her offspring over, she said: "My son I see how it is distinctually. You've been foolin around a thrashin masheen. You went in at the place where they put the grain into the thingamyjig and let the hosses tread on you, didn't they, my son?" The pen of no livin orthur could describe that disfortunit young man's situation more clearer. But I was sorry for him and I went and nussed him till he got well. His reg'lar original father had been sent to the war. I told him I'd be a father to him myself. He smilt a sickly smile, and said I'd already been wuss than two fathers to him.

The Collapse of Crinoline.—We have repeatedly announced that a collapse in crinoline was about to take place. We are now able to state that it has actually taken place. The ladies have reduced their proportions and the amplitude of their skirts. The New York Times, noticing the change, says:

"No one who promenades Broadway now-a-days will doubt that the long-foretold, long-delayed 'collapse of crinoline' has at last come to pass. It is visible to the most careless observer, and has proof in our most fashionable ladies as they 'march along.' The immense circumference of skirt and steam sweep of train that came in vogue a dozen years ago, and have been expanding and lengthening ever since, until recently, are now things of the past. In their stead masculine eyes are now gratified by neat trim dresses, at once moderate in size, gracefully brief, and pre-eminently piquant.

☞"Sally Mander safe!" said Mrs. Partington, as her eyes fell on an advertisement. "Do tell me, Isaac, who this Sally Mander is, and what she's been doing that they've got her safe."

"I don't know what she's been doing," said Ike, "but I guess she's a sister to Jerry."

"Jerry who, Isaac?"

"Why, Jerry Mander," said Ike, as he resumed his work by the window catching flies

STANTON ALARMED.

The impeachment and other revolutionary projects of the Radical fanatics in Congress are alarming even Secretary Stanton. A Washington special to the Pittsburg Chronicle, a Radical paper, says John Covode had an interview of some length with Secretary Stanton a day or two since, and that Mr. Stanton was feeling very despondent. He remarked to Covode that "he had placed two million of men in the field during the late war, six hundred thousand of whom had bitten the dust or been maimed and crippled for life, and yet, contemplating all these sacrifices which had been made by the people, the country was in a worse condition, and one of more danger, than at any period during the war."

No one who looks about him can fail to be convinced of the truth of Mr. Stanton's assertion. The country is really in greater danger this day than it was at any period during the rebellion. The Radical fanatics threaten more certain and irreparable ruin than the rebels ever did.

HOW IMPEACHMENT IS WORKING.

During the course of a debate in the Rump House, on the 21st inst., Mr Dodge, Republican member from New York, referred to the disastrous effects which the impeachment agitation was producing. We make the following extract from the report of his remarks:

"Referring to the proposed impeachment of the President, he deprecated it as being unfortunate in a political point of view, but vastly more unfortunate in paralyzing the industrial and business interests of the country. He mentioned the instance of a charitable institution of New York, which had voted to invest its surplus capital in United States securities, but that vote had been reconsidered on account of the impeachment proposition, and the president of the society was directed to deposit the amount in the New York Life and Trust Fund. So it was in all branches of business."

But of course such facts will have no influence with those who have pinned their faith to the "rule or ruin" leaders.

A NATIONAL CONVENTION.

The Philadelphia Age suggests the holding of a National Democratic Convention, at some central point, on a day to be named, Right!—we second the motion. The Radical destructives in Congress must be taught that THE PEOPLE are watching them, and that "patience may cease to be a virtue." Such a convention could not but have immense weight, and might result in parrying the blow which Radicalism is striking at the rights and liberties of the masses. Let the Convention meet, and let its voice be so loud and clear that even unreasoning Radicals will hear and heed. The country can yet be saved. And the Democracy is the only party that can or will do it.

FOREIGNERS, THINK OF IT!

Wm. H. Koontz, Radical member of Congress from this district, on Tuesday, the 15th, made from the Committee for the District of Columbia, an adverse report on the memorial of citizens of foreign birth praying for the same rights as negroes! Here, Germans and Irishmen, is the estimate placed upon you by the Radical party leaders. Are you willing to support longer the candidates of a party which refuses to your brethren of the District of Columbia the same rights as voters and citizens which its leaders in Congress have just granted to the ignorant and vagrant negroes of Washington City?

SUMNER'S HEAD STILL SORE.

Charles Sumner showed what a miserable white-livered coward he is by a speech which he made on Friday week. While assailing President Johnson in the most bitter and malignant manner, he exclaimed:

Thank God, now the slave masters have been driven from this Chamber, such at last is the liberty of an American Senator!

No doubt he rejoiced greatly in the fact that on the floor of the Senate there was a large majority ready to approve his blackguardism, while from the galleries a crowd of negroes looked down and grinned their approbation. He would not have felt safe if he had been surrounded by the men who sat there when he made the speech which cost him a caning at the hands of Brooks.

☞John W. Forney sends us a prospectus of his Philadelphia Weekly Press for publication. We can't see it in that light. When we take to publishing the prospectus of a radical nigger paper like THE PRESS, either for love or money, it will be when we are blind or crazy. The infamous doctrines advocated by that paper are already too deeply instilled into the minds of a large proportion of the American people, and it would be criminal on the part of Democratic editors to aid in giving them further circulation. We want no fellowship with such men as John W. Forney.

☞A leading Radical paper in Wisconsin utters the following truths: What the country wants is peace. The people are tired of war, and agitation, and turmoil. Impeachment would profoundly excite the country and embitter and prolong party conflict. It is desirable to avoid this. It is no time to foster malice, or to excite revenge. The quietest way out of our troubles is the best way. The public want peace, and they want it in the quickest way, and in the way which seems to them most just, most generous, and most enduring.

☞The Maryland Legislature has passed an act for holding a special election for Mayor and City Councils of Baltimore, on the first Monday of February. This will displace the Radical usurpers who elected themselves last fall by disfranchising about eighteen thousand legal voters. Good. Time brings all things even.

☞Hon. George W. Woodward, of the Supreme Bench, having been addressed by the Democratic members of the Pittsburg Bar, upon the subject of his being a candidate for re-election, has written a reply, in which he positively declines being a candidate.

BETRAYERS TO BE REMEMBERED.

Such shameless betrayers of Republican sentiment as McConnaughy, Stumbaugh, and the two score of other members of the Legislature who voted for Cameron's nomination in the face of the unmistakable popular preference for Curtin, are not likely to have an "easy thing of it" in the future. McClure, of the Chambersburg Repository, says:

"As one of the Senators charged with the most responsible duties by a legislature chosen by the loyal men of the State, we shall approve his [Cameron's] official acts cordially so long as he merits it, and censure only when truth and consistency imperatively demand it. But with the mercenary betrayers of the Republicans of the State we shall have war until they cease to be known in the body politic save as finger-boards to mankind of the withering retribution of an earnest and upright People."

"An overwhelming majority of the loyal journals do not conceal their mortification at the result, and most of them have taken their representatives squarely to task for their treachery. To tolerate the authors of such a wrong could not but be fatal to the Republican organization, and its only hope of future success is in hurling into infamy the men who have sought its honors to reward it with shame."

The Venango Spectator says:

"The members of the legislative body of Pennsylvania, assembled in caucus on Thursday evening last, crowned themselves with everlasting infamy, by nominating to the high position of United States Senator, Simon Cameron, whose name has been for years synonymous with all that is corrupt. It is plain to every one what means the old Winnebago used to secure his nomination. All who thus sold their votes and outraged their constituency, should be held to a strict accountability."

The Erie Dispatch, referring to the support given by the Erie delegation to Cameron, concludes its comments thus:

"Out upon this pack of misrepresentatives. The people of Erie county owe them but one more obligation, and that is a dishonorable dismissal from service."

The Pittsburg Leader denounces the Allegheny members who voted for Cameron, and says it would not trust one of them for one week's subscription to that paper.

CAMERON AT LOCHIEL.

The friends of Gen. Cameron gathered at his residence near Harrisburg, the other day, to congratulate him upon his election, and to receive his thanks in return for their services. The telegraph gives a full report of the speech of the veteran politician on the occasion, for which, brief as it is, we cannot find space.

We dearly love a joke, but Cameron's compliment to the Legislature was a little too much of a good thing. What virtuous people these members must have imagined themselves when Cameron informed them that this endorsement by them was the richest legacy he could give his children! How these sweet and honied words must have consoled them, with the Liting and reproachful accents of Stevens still ringing in their ears. The buttons on Morrow B. Lowry's blue coat must have blushed, were they not so brazen. How the demure McConaughy must have rolled up the whites of his eyes when he heard the unusual flattery. There has been nothing like it since John Morrissey's affectionate address to his Fifth ward constituents.

After expressing the Christian hope that he would be able to forgive his enemies, and turning, by way of revenge, upon the President some of the abuse that had been heaped upon him, he graciously informed his admirers, that he would not again ask them for their support, promising to retire at the close of this term. "My dear friends," said a patriarchal old rat, "I have determined to retire soon from public life, and to relieve myself of the cares you have imposed on me. Farewell!" Deeply affected, snivelling audibly, and wiping his suffused eyes with his tail, the old rat withdrew. He was afterwards found buried in a hole which he had cut with his own teeth—in a huge Dutch cheese!—Bedford Gazette.

THE INVESTIGATION COMMITTEE.

The Harrisburg Telegraph is parading to the world the announcement that the investigation Committee have failed to discover any evidence of fraud in the recent Senatorial election. What barefaced audacity? Does not every body know that the majority of Radicals in the Legislature, who were bought up by Simon Cameron, appointed a Committee for the express purpose of preventing any investigation? It was a Committee of Investigation got up to prevent an investigation. Of course they report that they do not find any evidence of bribery or corruption. That is just what they were appointed for. It was their business to whitewash Simon and themselves. Any other kind of a report would not have been received. It will now be in order for some Democrat to move that "the Committee, having fully discharged the duty for which it was appointed, be honorably discharged." We call on Mr. Boyle of the House to do this. We have no doubt the Radicals will be gratified for such an act of courtesy.—Lancaster Intelligencer.

☞The Rump Congress having struck out of the appropriation bill the clause appropriating $50,000 for temporary clerks in the Treasury Department, the Secretary will be compelled to discharge fifty-five clerks by the 15th of February, although there is plenty of work for them. These clerks are principally disabled soldiers. The Secretary regrets being obliged to discharge them, especially during the winter, but the action of the Rump has made their discharge imperative. The Radicals are determined to curtail the patronage of the Administration, no matter how many wounded heroes shall thereby suffer. In the meantime almost every Radical Rumper has a son, a brother or a nephew in some congressional office, drawing large pay and doing nothing. Is this right—is it honorable—is it patriotic? No.

Very good. Having made so great a run for United States Senator, and being only seventy-five years old, why shouldn't he, like all other boys, "run wid der masheen?" With a little "reconstruction" about the lower extremities, we venture to say the "Old Boy" couldn't be beat at a big fire.

☞No impeachment can be tried before a fragment of a United States Senate. Radicalism must understand this fact.

O, TEMPORA, O, MORES!

On the 22d instant eleven of the Pennsylvania Radical members of the Rump House, namely—Stevens, Kelley, Wilson, Broomall, Mercur, Miller, O'Neill, Thayer, Koontz, Myers and Schofield, sent to the Rump Senate a signed remonstrance against the confirmation of the appointment of Hon. Edgar Cowan, as Minister to Austria. They say:

"We make the request on the ground that we believe him to be unfit for the position by opinion and associations; that he would misrepresent those of his constituents in your own body, and that his appointment is totally repugnant to the wishes of the people of Pennsylvania."

What a petty, contemptible business is this for full grown men—members, too, of a once high and dignified body—to be guilty of! Oh, the times—the manners!

But, the worst is to come. Says a special dispatch to the Philadelphia Inquirer, Radical:

"In addition to these, T. Williams and C. V. Culver did not wish to sign the paper, but would vote against him if they were in the Senate."

C. V. Culver—the Radical who was let out of a Venango jail (where he was held upon a charge of felony) by the Sergeant-at-arms of the Rump House and taken to Washington to increase the Radical disunion majority—assumes to say, for the People of Pennsylvania, that Edgar Cowan is unfit to be a Government representative, and that, as their representative, he would vote against him if he was in the Senate! The Radical party of Pennsylvania may esteem it an honor to be represented by this fellow, Culver, but the two hundred and ninety-one thousand Democrats—"unwashed" though they may be—deny his authority to speak or to vote for them. The Democracy deny Culver's right to speak for them, and consider that upon a question involving the character and standing of Edgar Cowan, jailbirds should, for decency's sake, hold their peace. So says the Patriot & Union, and we agree with it entirely.

DREAD RETRIBUTION.

During the war a Democratic editor in Dayton, Ohio, Bollmeyer, was murdered by an Abolitionist, without any provocation. An Abolition Court tried and acquitted the murderer. The whole trial was a disgraceful farce, and all who participated in it were guilty of official perjury. Some three years have elapsed, and the County Clerk, the Sheriff, and about one-half of the jury, are dead, while the infamous Judge, who outraged justice at the trial, is an idiot in a lunatic asylum! Jim Lane, while his hand was yet smoking with the blood of murdered victims, was elected to the office of U. S. Senator by a Puritanic Legislature. For one of his murders he was tried and of course acquitted. He has fallen by his own hand. It is now believed by most of mankind, that Mrs. Surratt was guiltless of participation in the murder of Mr. Lincoln. When she was under sentence of death, after a trial which will be considered a blot on our age, Mr. Preston King prevented access to the President, and denied admission to her daughter, who almost shrieked and sobbed her life away on the steps of the Executive mansion. A few months afterwards, Preston King stilled a remorseful conscience in this world by self-murder.

☞A week or two ago, some unknown scoundrels went into the orchard of Jacob Hikes, Waynesboro', Pennsylvania, and cut down all his fruit trees—seventy in number—broke open his corn-crib and scattered the corn upon the public road. On a gate was written: "This is not the worst." About the same time, in the town of Flint, Michigan, an unknown man and woman met Mr. David Mitchell's daughter—a girl of eighteen years—on the street at night and forced her to swallow a dose of arsenic, from the effects of which it is stated she cannot recover. Also, about the same time, a spiritualist up in New Hampshire was arrested and imprisoned for starving, imprisoning and otherwise torturing his daughter—a girl of fifteen years. For forty-eight hours the girl was gagged to prevent her from importuning her unnatural father for bread. Although the child is still suffering from debility and frost bites in consequence of his cruelty, she daily sends him presents of oranges and other delicacies provided for her by the people. Add to this the other recorded fact that a Cleveland justice has just fined a man five dollars for cutting his wife's head open with a hatchet, and a score of other brutal outrages familiar to newspaper readers, and we have a state of society in the Northern States that sadly needs "reconstructing." There is no necessity for us to "fly off at a tangent" and institute congressional investigations in the matter of selling negroes for six months as a punishment for crime, nor to boast of a superior civilization and humanity over the "late slaveholders," whilst we overlook the barbarity and crime immediately at our Northern doors.

☞The States unrepresented in Congress are to be placed under martial law, and the writ of habeas corpus is to be suspended therein as long as they remain in that condition.—Harrisburg Telegraph.

So, so. But who is to do it? Certainly not what you call "Congress." President Lincoln did the suspending of the habeas corpus, and Congress sustained him as the officer to whom that authority was entrusted by the Constitution. President Lincoln, (or his subordinates, through him,) declared martial law, when and where he pleased, and Congress never questioned his exclusive constitutional right to do so, as Commander-in-Chief of the Army and Navy.

These precedents, (to say nothing of previous ones, or of constitutional law,) most assuredly give to President Johnson exclusive control over the habeas corpus and martial law. This being the case, we are safe in saying that it will be a "precious long while" before the Southern States become afflicted with those curses—especially as peace and order are as fully maintained there as in the Northern States.—Patriot & Union.

☞Gov. Swann was on Friday elected United States Senator from Maryland for six years from the 4th of March next. Of the ninety-eight members present in joint convention, sixty-six cast their votes for Gov. Swann.

☞N. P. Willis, the poet, died at his residence, Idlewild, N. Y., on last Sunday, aged exactly sixty years. Alexander Smith, the young Scotch poet, also died on the 5th inst., aged 36 years.

"Utterly a Loafer—an Ignoramus—a Miserable Apology of a Man."

The Erie Dispatch, the ablest Republican paper of the Northwestern section of the State, "goes off" as follows at Geary, Cameron, and the rest of the unwashed and unregenerated Radicals, who now have control of the State. By the way, what is therein said are not "copperhead lies." Read:

The State is emphatically in the hands of the most despicable and degraded class of knaves that ever disgraced a Commonwealth, and the time is not far distant when the names of Cameron and Geary will sound so much like Ben Wood, Vallandigham, and Raphael Semmes that no one will be able to justly classify them in a different catalogue.

We do not know but that we are giving too much prominence to Geary, as he is such an ignoramus, and such a miserable apology for a man, such a complete loafer, who is allowed to sponge a subsistence from his more prosperous neighbors, that he alone is not able to gain distinction as a knave, or even as a loafer. The promises which he has already made and violated, the influence which he consented to have used to effect his election, and the manner in which he is dovetailed with men in the State who are known to be knaves, ought to be sufficient to keep him from being inaugurated as Governor of the State. But they will not. He will be placed in the office of Chief Executive with a howl of triumph, amidst a tournament of sin and corruption.

Our uninitiated readers may wonder why we have not before given our opinions upon this subject, if they were held from the beginning. We have intimated them before, and have warned the people of the State in general and the Republican party in particular, that they were sold on John W. Geary; but we hoped that the management which had him in charge would be sufficiently prudent to cover up a portion of their nakedness, and manifest by subsequent events that it was their desire to foster the principles as well as the interests of the party. But they have done nothing of the kind. They seem to sacrifice every principle to policy, and bury not only the honor and power of the party, but all its adherents in a grave of dishonor and oblivion.

The power of the Republican party in Pennsylvania is for the present used up. The imbecility and inefficiency of our next Governor, as a man within himself, will disgust every member in both parties, and the great public of the Commonwealth will not dare trust the party with the selection of another man to rule over them. The term of John W. Geary will be the era from which will date the decay of the Republican party in Pennsylvania, and which will furnish examples of folly to be guarded against in the future. It will constitute a severe, and, we hope, a beneficial lesson to the party, which will teach it that honesty and consistency must not be sacrificed to policy for the time being. Or, in other words, that availability will avail nothing when it does not bring with it an amount of brain and legitimate power sufficient to control at all times an honest majority in the party. The people are already disgusted with Geary. Their expressions are loud and unmistakable, and though they may be smothered for a time, it will be but a little while before they flame out all over the State in all their truth and power.

We are not disposed to award him so much honor as to give him the benefit of having created this dissatisfaction himself. On the contrary, we know he has not the ability to do it. It has been brought about by the knaves and demagogues who have the management of him. The party has allowed these men to deceive and swindle it, to barter it off for a mess of pottage which has not the merit of being either palatable or digestible, and it at once gives the Democracy the advantage of the sympathy of the dissatisfied, and an opportunity of regaining power by offering men whom the people are willing to accept on account of real merit. The conclusion is, that the Republican party in Pennsylvania must either be washed and regenerated, or conclude to hereafter suffer defeat.

THE DEMOCRACY SUSTAINED.

Mr. Justice Davis, of the Supreme Court of the United States, delivered the opinion of the Court in the celebrated Milligan case, in reference to military commissions. In that opinion he says:

"The Constitution of the United States is law for rulers and people, equally in war and peace, and covers with the shield of its protection all classes of men, at all times, and under all circumstances. No doctrine involving more pernicious consequences was ever invented by the wit of man than that any of its provisions can be suspended during any of the great emergencies of the Government. Such a doctrine leads directly to anarchy and despotism; but the theory of necessity on which it is based is false, for the Government, within the Constitution, has all the powers granted to it which are necessary to preserve its existence, as has been happily proved by the result of the great effort to throw off its just authority."

This is the language of patriotism, of truth and of the genius of our institutions. For enunciating these immortal principles, Democrats have been vilified, proscribed and denounced; but the dispassionate investigation given by the Supreme Court to this momentous subject, has yielded from the pen of Justice Davis, an appointee of Mr. Lincoln himself, his personal friend and his executor, this most ample vindication of the correctness of the tenets of our political faith.—Patriot & Union.

The Attacks upon the Supreme Court.—The style of comment on the Supreme Court and its decisions adopted by such Jacobin presses as the N. Y. Herald and Washington Chronicle is most scandalous. It is assumed that the duty of the Supreme Court is to interpret the Constitution to suit the wishes of the dominant party. This makes the Constitution a vase of wax and utterly subverts the purposes for which it was adopted. The Judge who shall interpret the Constitution otherwise than according to his convictions of the sense in which it was adopted is simply a perjured scoundrel. And the politician who would have the Court of final appeal thus perverted and degraded thereby, demonstrates that his own aims are base if not treasonable. Suspect any man who treats the Constitution and Supreme Court with contempt.—Springfield Republican.

Shame!—The New York Evening Post, a Republican newspaper, says: "For the honor of the country we trust that the debate on Saturday will be stricken out of the journal of the House of Representatives, and that the House will take some measures for preserving itself and the country from the degradation of again listening to such language as Messrs. Stevens, of Pennsylvania, and Spaulding, of Ohio, indulged themselves in on that day.

A parcel of sailors in a ship's forecastle would have hissed down, with disgust, such indecency coming from two old men, and would have demanded that they should be decent at least out of respect to their own gray hair. But it seems the National House of Representatives, less decorous than a forecastle full of sailors, encouraged the ribaldry of these two old men with roars of laughter which the "Speaker vainly endeavored to suppress."

Remarkable Skating.—The Minneapolis (Minn.) Chronicle records the following extraordinary feat: "A few days since a young lady of this city, on whose head only fifteen summers have passed, determined, with her brother, to make a pilgrimage to Dayton on skates. They left here at ten o'clock in the forenoon, and arrived at Dayton at four o'clock in the afternoon. The journey was performed in six hours; the distance traveled, by the way they went, was about fifty miles. This will do for a young lady of fifteen."

TOWN AND COUNTY AFFAIRS.

☞Hon. J. Lellard his our thanks for continued Legislative favors.

SALES.—Attention is directed to the sales of personal property advertised in this issue of the COMPILER. Any amount of live stock, farming implements, household furniture, &c., will be offered.

METEOR.—On Tuesday evening a very brilliant meteor passed over the country east of our borough. It appeared about half the size of a full moon, its course south-west, lighting the whole country for about fifteen seconds as bright as day.

SNOW ON HOUSE-TOPS.—Owners and occupants of buildings would do well to have the snow removed from the roofs thereof. From the present accumulation on the tops of houses there is great danger that the immense weight will crush the roofs, as has often been the case. In the event of a sudden thaw or rain the danger would be doubly imminent. By heeding this timely warning, property holders may avoid heavy damage to their buildings.

NEW TELEGRAPH OFFICE.—The Atlantic and Pacific Telegraph Company have permanently located an office in this place, in the store of Messrs. Duphorn & Hoffman, corner of Carlisle street and the Square. This line has direct connections with all towns and cities east and west, and will be a great accommodation to our business men.

THE GAME LAWS.—We call the attention of those interested to the fact that the time for killing either pheasants, partridges or rabbits, has already expired. Attention is called to the change made in the game law last session—Act 11th April, 1866, P. L., p. 714.

SEC. 2. That no person shall shoot, kill or otherwise destroy any pheasant between the first day of January and the first day of September, or any woodcock between the first day of January and the fifteenth day of August, or any partridge or rabbit between the first day of January and the fifteenth day of October in each and every year, under a penalty of five dollars for each offence.

Section six was a re-enactment of section six of the act of 1858, with this amendment: That instead of imprisonment for two days, it shall be ten days, without bail.

A NEW LAW.—A law was passed by the last Legislature which may not be generally known. It provides that any person "who shall receive or buy from minors, unknown or irresponsible parties, any scrap iron, brass, lead or metal, shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, and to undergo an imprisonment of not more than one year, or both or either." This makes it criminal to buy or receive from such parties, irrespective of whether it was stolen or not, and is intended to remove from children the temptation to pilfer.

DIAMOND CHURN.—The best thing we ever saw in the shape of a Butter Churn, was exhibited here last week, by Mr. Heiges, of York. It is called the "Diamond Churn," to indicate superiority, we suppose, and it well deserves the distinction. We witnessed the operation of churning, and butter was made in the incredibly short space of one minute and a half—the butter very solid and of fine quality. It seems to us that the "Diamond" cannot fail to give satisfaction in every case.

—Since writing the above, we learn that the exclusive right to make and sell this Churn in Adams county, has been purchased by Col. C. H. Buehler, of this place, Wm. Wible, of Straban, H. P. Bigham, of Green Mount, and Samuel Overholtzer, of Hampton. It is their intention to get up a lot of churns immediately.

BALKY HORSES.—We saw a man, the other day, beating a horse most severely, because, for some reason or other, the animal "wouldn't go." The circumstance suggested to us the publication of the following, from an exchange:

When a horse balks, get out, or off, and put a handful of gravel or dirt in his mouth, when he will immediately go ahead just as though nothing had happened.

☞Mr. Elisha Penrose, of Menallen, has a colt which weighed 720 pounds when seven months and nineteen days old. A remarkable weight for a colt of that age.

☞The Crosby Opera House, in Chicago, was drawn by H. Lee, of Prairie Du Rocher, Illinois, on Monday. It is valued at $600,000.

BENEFIT OF ADVERTISING.—A gentleman yesterday advertised in our columns "a dog lost." This morning the dog went home of his own accord. He thought it of no use to attempt to part away if the newspapers were after him. —Oswego Times.

☞Prentice, of the Louisville Journal, tenders this advice to the public: "Never buy goods of those who don't advertise. They sell so little that they have to sell dear."

NURSERY RHYMES.—

High diddle diddle,
The Congressional fiddle—
The war closed a little too soon.
The little dogs laugh
While Butler and staff
Run away with another teaspoon.

☞SEE FIRST PAGE.

☞For several weeks past the Radical members of the Rump Senate and House have been industriously engaged in a match of blackguardism, the President of the United States being the target. Perhaps the forecastle of no man-of-war ever resounded with more villainous language than have the two chambers of the Federal Capitol during that time. It seems that to be a Radical leader and to render the fullest satisfaction to those who entertain "grand moral ideas," a man must divest himself of the semblance of a gentleman; lay self-respect and a decent deportment aside, and become a boor, a law-breaker and a brute.

☞Thaddeus Stevens seems to be growing more fanatical every day. He is not satisfied with asking Congress to take charge of the late rebel States, but wants them also to meddle with the affairs of the old Keystone State. In a speech in Congress on Tuesday week he said:

"I deny that the State of Pennsylvania has ever been a republic, and I wish this Congress would take it in hand and make it a republic."

COURT.—January Court was held last week, and attracted an unusually large number of spectators. The sleighing was fine, and our country friends, having little or nothing to do at home, poured in from all sides, giving the town an appearance of extraordinary life. It is said that never before were there so many sleighs in Gettysburg at one time as on Tuesday or Wednesday last. The following cases were disposed of in Court:

COMMON PLEAS.

David Young vs. Matilda Young.—Libel for divorce. Divorce decreed.

Peter J. Myers vs. Mary Myers.—Libel for divorce, on ground of desertion by wife. After a trial of three days, and the examination of numerous witnesses, verdict for respondent, Mary Myers.

Wm. Slonaker vs. George Lady.—Trespass vi et armis and taking away a cow, property of plaintiff, by George Lady, constable, to satisfy an execution placed in his hands, Slonaker claiming the benefit of the exemption laws. Verdict $75 damages for plaintiff. Motion for a new trial.

QUARTER SESSIONS,

Commonwealth vs. Westley Hart.—Larceny of a saddle from Daniel H. Markley. Defendant plead guilty, and was sentenced to three months in the county jail, pay a fine of five dollars, and the costs.

Commonwealth vs. Jesse Rice.—Assault and battery on his wife, Maria Rice. Verdict, not guilty, on account of insanity at the time of committing the act. Ordered to State Insane Asylum.

Commonwealth vs. Andrew Stock.—Assault and battery on Hannah M. Sheads. Verdict, not guilty, and jury directed Hannah M. Sheads to pay one-fourth of the costs and Andrew Stock three-fourths.

Commonwealth vs. Lewis Fohl, Samuel Eckenrode, Jeremiah Weigle and Wm. B. Hocker.—Surety of the peace, on oath of Henry R. Slaybaugh. Jeremiah Weigle discharged for insufficiency of proof, and the other three directed to pay the costs.

All the applications for license were granted except that of Randolph Johnson, (colored,) against which there was a remonstrance by the neighbors and others.

The Grand Jury was discharged on Wednesday, and Court adjourned on Saturday.

To Become a Lancasterian.—The Lancaster Intelligencer states that it is currently reported that Governor Curtin has purchased the residence of C. E. Darlington, Esq., on North Duke Street, in that city, and that he is about to become a resident of Lancaster. Perhaps he is expecting to step into Old Thad's shoes, when the latter "shuffles off this mortal coil."

In Tribulation.—The old line Radicals are in much tribulation over the appointments of General Geary, the new Governor. They have been made, no doubt, at the solicitation of General Cameron, and are in his interest. These are indications which way the new State administration leans.

☞A recent investigation before Judge Thomas, at Alexandria, in regard to the confiscated property of a Mr. M'Veigh, has developed the fact that Judge(!) Underwood, of the United States Circuit Court, (a shining light of Radical "grand moral ideas,") and John B. Alley, Oakes Ames, and Samuel Hooper, Radical members of the present Rump Congress, from Massachusetts, had entered into a "fraudulent combination" to secure said property for a trifling consideration. Not the least disreputable part of the matter is the fact that judgment of confiscation had been passed by Underwood in his own court, and that he is now the owner and occupant of M'Veigh's handsome residence. The evidence in regard to the manner in which these "loyal" scoundrels managed the matter to rob a despised "rebel" would damn anything human except a Yankee.

☞Ashley, the Impeacher, was born in Pennsylvania; but, fortunately for the State, he left at sweet fifteen, for the West, where he became, in turn, a peddler of cheap jewelry among the negroes along the Mississippi, a botch printer, a poorly-read lawyer, a boat-builder, a seller of drugs, a newspaper publisher, &c. Having failed in all these, the graduation was easy to a seat in Congress from the Toledo (Ohio) district.

☞Hon. James H. Campbell, of Pottsville, who four years ago, represented the Schuylkill district in Congress, and since been Minister to Stockholm, was last week nominated as Minister to Bogota by the President.

Fast.—A race from Providence to Boston, forty-two miles in sleighs, for a purse of one thousand dollars, Tuesday afternoon, was won by the "Black Maria" in three hours and twenty-five minutes.

To Owners of Horses.

Thousands of Horses die yearly from Colic. This need not be. Dr. Tobias' Venitian Horse Liniment will positively cure every case, if given when first taken. The cost is only one dollar. Every owner of a horse should have a bottle in his stable, ready for use. It is warranted superior to anything else for the cure of Cuts, Wind Galls, Swellings, Sore Throat, Sprains, Bruises, Old Sores, &c. This Liniment is no new remedy, it has been used and approved for 19 years by the first horsemen in the country. Given to an overdriven horse, it acts like magic. Orders are constantly received from the racing-stables of England for it. The celebrated Hiram Woodruff, of trotting fame, has used it for years, and says it is far superior to any other he has tried. He kindly permits me to refer to him. His address is East New York, Long Island. Recollect, Dr. Tobias' Venitian Horse Liniment is put up in pint bottles. Take no other. Sold by the Druggists and Saddlery Depot, 56 Courtland Street, New York. [Jan. 7, 1867, 1w

An Elegant Sweet Dish.

There are a vast number of persons who utterly abhor the idea of being forced to swallow physic—Pills, especially—at a period of time when their own conscience tells them that they need medicine. To those who make wry faces, shrug their shoulders, and shake their heads, as if an absolute loss of a sentence, let them prove the truly reliable kind, Radway's Regulating Pills. They are tasteless, being coated with sweet gum, a vegetable sunstitute for calomel or mercury, and they act upon the system quietly and mildly, so as not to purge heavily, or outrage upon the stomach, but rather tone the liver, set it right, the bowels as nature demands. In their workings they are marvelous, and when Help or Death hath a voice, these Pills have saved tens and tens of thousands of lives. They are warranted to effect a positive cure in cases like Dyspepsia, Bilious Fever, Piles, Disorder of the Kidneys, Hysterics, and particularly those severe diseases caused by a disordered Liver. Whenever the digestive organs require a regulator, Radway's Regulating Pills should be used in every case.

Sold by Druggists. Price 25 cents per box.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other expectorant is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted the y can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

We only assure the public, that its quality is carefully kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do for them relief all that it has ever done.

Great numbers of Clergymen, Physicians, Statesmen, and eminent personages have lent their names to certify the unparalleled usefulness of our remedies, but space here will not permit the insertion of them. The Agents below named furnish, gratis our American Almanac in which they are given, with also full descriptions of the complaints they cure.

Those who require an ALTERATIVE MEDICINE to purify the blood will find AYER'S COMP. EXT. SARSAPARILLA the remedy to use. Try it once, and you will know its value.

Prepared by J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass., and sold by A. D. BUEHLER, Gettysburg, Pa.

Important Qualities.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS so stimulate all the interior powers of the system that every poison or impurity is forced from the blood into the bowels, and thus passes off. Recent cases of sickness will often be cured by the effect of 6 or 8 Brandreth's Pills, which, when the operation is full and complete, leave the blood as free from poisonous and unhealthy matter as that of a new-born babe. In colds, inflammatory diseases, and even in cholera, their use restores to health sooner than all other remedies, because they take from the blood and bowels those matters upon which pains, cramps, and aches depend for continuance.

Captain Isaac Smith, of Sing Sing, says, thirty of Brandreth's Pills, taken according to directions, cured him of a very severe bronchial affection after other means had failed, and he wishes his numerous friends to know the fact.

Brandreth's Pills, Principal Office, Brandreth House, New York. Sold also by all Druggists. See the name on Government stamp, without which the pills are spurious.

SCHENCK'S SEAWEED TONIC.

This medicine, invented by Dr. J. H. Schenck, of Philadelphia, is intended to digest the food and make it into chyme, the first process of digestion. By cleansing the stomach with Schenck's Mandrake Pills, the Tonic soon restores the appetite, and food that could not be eaten before among it will be easily digested.

Consump tion cannot be cured by Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup unless the stomach and liver is made healthy and the appetite restored, hence the Tonic and Pills are required in nearly every case of consumption. A half dozen bottles of the SEAWEED TONIC and three or four boxes of the MANDRAKE PILLS will cure any ordinary case of dyspepsia.

Dr. Schenck makes professional visits in New York, Boston, and at his principal Office in Philadelphia every week

Jules Jared's "EMAIL DE PARIS."

THE NEW

Beautifier of the Skin.

TESTIMONIALS FROM CELEBRATED LADIES.

This secret of beautifying the skin being known only to Messrs. Jared & Rene, they honorably state that it differs from all other preparations. It gives to the most harsh and freckled skin both the texture and color of polished Ivory, removing all discolorations, whether appearing as freckles, tan, morphew, moth or blackworm specks, and is especially successful in smoothing out the marks left by the smallpox.

The agents of "L'Email de Paris" most confidently submit to the public the earnest endorsements of such distinguished ladies as Signora, RISTORI,

Mdlle FELICITA VESTVALI,
Miss MAGGIE MITCHELL,
Mrs. D. P. BOWERS,
LUCILLE WESTERN,
Madame POMISI,
Mrs. EMMA WALLER,
LUCY RUSHTON,
NOEMIE DE MARGUERITTES,
Miss A. PERRY,

and many others, whose high standing in the profession gives the stamp of truthfulness to their intelligent and genuine approval.

The beautiful Lucille Western says:

"I find that the 'Email' produces all the brilliancy of rouge and lily-white, with the great and peculiar advantage of total harmlessness. It really adds to the softness and beauty of the skin."

The magnificent Vestvali says:

"I have suffered so much from the various white lotions, &c., which my theatrical profession obliges me to use, that I consider it a perfect benefaction to find a preparation which gives the necessary whiteness to the skin, and leaves the skin cool and smooth."

Miss Maggie Mitchell says:

"I have tried the skin beautifier, 'L'Email de Paris,' and found that it instantly imparts a natural bloom and freshness to the complexion."

"Jared's Email de Paris" is used as a delicate beautifier of the skin for Theatre, Saloon or Ball Room, by the most refined and scrupulous ladies, producing all the beautifying effects of rouge and lily-white, without their vulgar glare or injury to the skin.

Sold by all first-class Druggists, Perfumers and Ladies' Hair Dressers.

1867. Prospectus. 1867.

THE attention of the public is invited to the claims of

THE WORLD

as one of the leading public journals of the country. It is the chief organ of the Democratic party of the United States, and the foremost advocate of the immediate restoration of the Union. Its highest merit consists in its character as

An Enterprising and Trustworthy Newspaper.

The next year bids fair to be a more critical one in the history of our free institutions than even any of the eventful ones that have preceded it. The first requisite for an intelligent *judgment of public affairs is a full and authen*tic account of facts as they transpire. These THE WORLD always aims to give with conscientious accuracy, and with equal fullness and fidelity whether they make for or against its own views of public policy. Prompt activity in spreading before its readers every kind of news in which any part of the public takes an interest, is the first duty of a newspaper; and the facilities of The World for discharging this obligation are unsurpassed by those of any journal in the United States. Whatever else it may fail in, it certainly will not fail to furnish the news, nor to supply it with such promptitude, spirit, freshness, abundance, variety, accuracy, and candor, that no class of readers can miss anything of interest which they wish to find. The World will publish documents and arguments prepared by political foes just as freely as those prepared by political friends; making its own comments on them, of course, but never suppressing or garbling them because they are calculated to damage its own party. Adverse arguments which it cannot refute, it is content to make their full impression. The World adopts this rule because it believes no other is honest; because it conceives that its first duty to its readers is to keep them thoroughly informed on every passing subject of importance. In politics, The World will continue to be the bold advocate of

A Liberal, Progressive Democracy.

The unflinching champion of Freedom, Justice, Order, and Constitutional Rights. The inspiration of its politics is Freedom restrained by Justice; or, to speak more strictly, Freedom pure and simple, in the largest collective measure; the office of justice being merely to protect freedom from encroachments; Freedom of the individual citizen in his rights of thought, speech, religion, and locomotion; in his Right to choose his own food and drink, in spite of meddlesome temperance laws; in his Right to make any money bargains he thinks proper, in spite of foolish usury laws; in his Right to buy and sell in all markets, domestic and foreign, in spite of unjust protective tariffs; in his Right to representation in the legislative bodies which tax him in spite of unconstitutional exclusions; Freedom of collective citizens to assemble for discussion of grievances; Freedom of all local communities to manage their local affairs without central interference; Freedom in every section of the country from the arrogant and unconstitutional domination of other sections; this large and comprehensive idea of Freedom sums up the politics of The World, which will never be found wanting to this capital interest of the country and of the human race.

In its Accurate Commercial Intelligence and careful, reliable market reports, The World will continue to maintain its present high reputation. A paper published in the commercial metropolis is naturally looked to for authentic information relating to trade, commerce and finance, and this being a feature in which The World prides itself, it boldly challenges comparison with every journal in the metropolis.

EDITIONS.

The Weekly World, a large quarto sheet, same size as Daily, is now printed throughout in large type, and has the largest circulation of any weekly journal published, save one. Its extraordinary success since its union with the New York Argus has justified the most liberal expenditures, which will make it unrivalled in interest and value to farmers. Published Wednesday.

1. Its Market Reports embrace the New York, Albany, Brighton, and Cambridge Live Stock Markets; the New York Country Produce and General Produce Markets; special and valuable Hop Intelligence, a department of Agricultural Reading: all together composing an unrivalled hand book of current information for the Farmer, Live Stock or Produce Dealer, the Country Merchant, &c.

2. A page or more will be reserved for Entertaining Fireside Reading for the Family Circle, embracing the freshest and best Stories, Poetry, Religious Reading, etc., and a page for the Discussion of all Prominent Topics of general interest, political, agricultural, financial, literary, etc.

3. Its Digest of the News is not, like most city weeklies, a mere waste-basket of the Daily; only matters of interest and importance are chosen from the Daily, while the mass of its contents are prepared especially for the Weekly.

In every post-office district there should be found some active, public spirited Democrat, who will confer a benefit upon us, his neighbors, and the cause, by counseling with his Democratic friends and making a determined effort to form as large a club as possible for the Weekly World.

The Semi-Weekly World is a large quarto sheet, same size as Daily, which, by omitting a great mass of city advertisements from the Daily, contains all its news, correspondence, editorials, commercial and market news, cattle market and provision reports, and a fresh and entertaining miscellany of literature. Published Tuesday and Friday.

The Daily World affords a complete compendium of, and commentary upon, the news of every day.

For Sale.

THE BEST IN THE MARKET.

THE VICTOR SORGO MILL.

Over Five thousand of these Mills have been made and sold in the last three years. The best recommendations can be given.

Also—COOK'S EVAPORATOR, for making Sugar and Molasses, said to be the best in use.

CORN CRUSHERS.

Three different sizes for grinding Corn in the ear, or shelled—or any other kind of grain. This is a machine that every farmer should have, as a bushel of ground feed is equal to a bushel and a half unground. The high price of feed of all kinds makes an imperative demand for some kind of machinery by which to save. It is a rapid grinder and durable.

BELLS FOR CHURCHES,

SCHOOLS, FARM HOUSES, FOUNDRIES, &c. Made of the best steel composition. Church Bells insured for one year.

WILLOUGHBY'S GUM SPRING DRILL,

WITH CROWELL'S GUANO ATTACHMENT. This is considered one of the best Drills now in use. It will distribute any kind of grain evenly, and sow from one bushel up to three to the acre. The Guano Attachment has given entire satisfaction wherever used. It is so constructed as not to clog in sowing any kind of Phosphates or Bone Meal. Having sold a number of these machines last season, I can fully recommend them to be what they are represented. Persons wishing to buy should make application early as the supply is small and the demand great.

F. F. SMITH'S CAST STEEL PLOUGHS.

First, It is the only Plough yet produced that will invariably scour in any soil.

Second, It is now an established fact that It will last from three to six times longer than any other steel plough in use.

Third, It draws lighter than any other Plough, cutting the same width and depth of furrow.

The different parts of the Plough are cast in moulds, into the exact shape desired for the mould-boards, shares and land-sides, giving the parts most exposed to wear any desired thickness. The shares can be sharpened by any blacksmith. The steel is perfectly malleable and works kindly. Edge tools have been made out of pieces of the plough by blacksmiths all over the country.

Sewing Machines.

THE GROVER & BAKER.—THE BEST IN USE. These Machines have become so well known that little need be said by way of recommendation. They have taken the first premium at all the late State Fairs, and are universally acknowledged to be the BEST in use by all who have tried them. The "Grover & Baker Stitch" and the "Shuttle Stitch" are points that have been attained by no other Machine. They are the only machines that sew and embroider with perfection. These Machines are peculiarly adapted to Family use. They are almost noiseless, sew directly from the spool without rewinding, and are simple in their construction. They are easy to manage, and can be worked by almost any child. Every family should have one. They save labor, they save time, and they save money, and do their work better than it can be done by hand.

The undersigned having been appointed Agent for the above Machines, has established an Agency in Fairfield, Adams county, where he will always have on hand a supply. Persons wishing to buy will please call and examine for themselves.

☞Needles and Thread will also be supplied. J. S WITHEROW, Agent,

Teas! Teas!

TEAS FOR THE PEOPLE. No Store Enormous Profits for Consumers to pay. Fifty Cents to One Dollar per Pound Saved by buying your Teas direct from the Importers.

T. Y. Kelley & Co., Importers of Teas, in connection with their large wholesale business, have determined to introduce their Teas directly to consumers at importers' prices, thus effecting a saving to the consumer of 40 to 60 per cent. Families can now club together for any kind or qualities of Teas, in packages of one pound and upwards, and we will send them a superior article of Tea at 5 per cent. above the cost of importation. Let some energetic lady or other person in each neighborhood call upon her acquaintances and take their orders for any of the following named Teas, and when a club of ten, twenty, or more is obtained, send to us and we will send the Teas put up in separate packages, with the name of each person marked on it, all enclosed in one box. As a further inducement to the person getting up the club we will send for his or her services, an extra complimentary package on all orders of $30 and upward. It is perhaps not well understood why we can sell Teas so very low; but when it is taken into consideration that besides the original cost of importation, the Broker, Speculator, Jobber, Wholesale Dealer and Retailer, has each to reap a large profit, and the innumerable Cartages, Cooperages, Insurances, Storages, &c., which Teas have to pass through before they reach the consumer, will readily explain this. We propose to do away with seven-eighths of these profits and expenses, and it now remains with the people to say whether they shall save 50 cents to $1 00 per pound on every pound of Tea they purchase, or be compelled to give their earnings to a host of useless go-betweens.

PRICE LIST.

OOLONG: (Black) 70, 80, 90, $1 00, $1 10, best $1 25 per pound.

ENGLISH BREAKFAST, (Black) 80, 90, $1 00, best $1 25 per pound.

YOUNG HYSON, (Green) 85, 95, $1 00, extra $1 25, superior $1 50 per pound.

MIXED, (Green and Black) 70, 80, 90, best $1 00 per pound.

IMPERIAL, (Green) $130, best, per pound.

JAPAN, $1 00, $1 10, $1 25, best, per pound.

GUNPOWDER, (Green) $1 30, best $1 60 per pound.

COFFEE DEPARTMENT.

We have lately added a Coffee Department to our establishment, and although we cannot promise the consumer as great a saving as we can on Teas, (the margin for profit on Coffees being very small,) yet we can sell Coffees fully 25 per cent. cheaper than retailers charge. Our Coffees come direct from the Custom House, and we roast and grind them perfectly pure, put up in 1 or more pound packages, at an advance of 2 cents per pound.

Our Wholesale Price—Ground Coffees—Pure Rio, 25, 30 cents per pound. Best Old Government Java, 40 cents. Best Ceylon, 40 cents.

SENDING MONEY.—Parties sending orders for less than $30 for Teas or Coffees should send with their order a P. O. Draft or the money, to save the expense of collecting by Express. But large orders we will forward by Express and collect on delivery.

We shall be happy at all times to receive a call at our warehouse from persons visiting the city, whether dealers or not.

CELEBRATED
Horse and Cattle Powders.

This preparation, long and favorably known, will thoroughly reinvigorate broken down and low-spirited horses, by strengthening and cleansing the stomach and intestines.

It is a sure preventive of all diseases incident to this animal, such as LUNG FEVER, GLANDERS, YELLOW WATER, STAVES, COUGHS, DISTEMPER, FEVERS, FOUNDER, LOSS OF APPETITE AND VITAL ENERGY, &c. It also improves the wind, increases the appetite, gives a smooth and glossy skin—and transforms the galloping skeleton into a fine-looking and spirited horse.

To keepers of Cows this preparation is invaluable. It increases the quantity and improves the quality of the milk. It has been proven by actual experiment to increase the quantity of milk and cream twenty per cent and make the butter firm and sweet. In fattening cattle, it gives them an appetite, loosens their hides, and makes them thrive much faster.

In all diseases of Swine, such as Coughs, Ulcers in the Lungs, Liver, &c., this article note as a specific. By putting from one-half a paper to a paper in a barrel of swill the above diseases will be eradicated or entirely prevented. If given in time, a certain preventive and cure for the Hog Cholera

PERUVIAN SYRUP
IS A PROTOXIDE SOLUTION OF THE
Protoxide of Iron,
a new discovery in medicine which
STRIKES AT THE ROOT OF DISEASE, by supplying the Blood with its VITAL PRINCIPLE, OR LIFE ELEMENT—IRON.

This is the secret of the wonderful success of this remedy in curing

DYSPEPSIA, LIVER COMPLAINT, DROPSY, CHRONIC DIARRHŒA, BOILS, Nervous Affections, Chills and Fevers, Humors, Loss of Constitutional Vigor, Disease of the Kidneys and Bladder, Female Complaints, and all diseases originating in A BAD STATE OF THE BLOOD, or accompanied by DEBILITY, or a LOW STATE OF THE SYSTEM.

Being free from Alcohol in any form, its energizing effects are not followed by corresponding reaction, but are permanent, infusing strength, vigor and new life into all parts of the system, and building up an IRON CONSTITUTION.

DYSPEPSIA AND DEBILITY.

From the Venerable Archdeacon Scott, D. D.

DUNHAM, Canada East, March 24, 1865. * * * "I am an inveterate Dyspeptic of more than 25 years' standing." * * * "I have been so wonderfully benefitted in the three short weeks during which I have used the Peruvian Syrup, that I can scarcely persuade myself of the reality. People who have known me are astonished at the change. I am widely known, and can but recommend to others that which has done so much for me."

One of the most DISTINGUISHED JURISTS in New England writes to a friend as follows:

"I have tried the PERUVIAN SYRUP, and the result fully sustains your prediction. It has made a NEW MAN of me; infused into my system new vigor and energy; I am no longer tremulous and debilitated, as when you last saw me, but stronger, heartier, and with larger capacity for labor, mental and physical, than at any time during the last five years."

An EMINENT DIVINE of Boston, says:

"I have been using the PERUVIAN SYRUP for some time past; it gives me new vigor, buoyancy of spirits, elasticity of muscle."

☞THOUSANDS have been changed by the use of this remedy; from weak, sickly, suffering creatures, to strong, healthy, and happy men and women; and invalids cannot reasonably hesitate to give it a trial.

A pamphlet of 32 pages, containing certificates of cures and recommendations from some of the most eminent physicians, clergymen, and others, will be sent FREE to any address.

☞See that each bottle has PERUVIAN SYRUP blown in the glass.
